

Report of Findings:

1. Out of 891 passengers, 62% people died in the accident.
2. Nearly 79% of the people in 'Class 3' of the ship were deceased.
3. Out of the number of people survived, 63% were from 'Class 1' of the ship.
4. We can conclude that nearly 81% of the total number of 'Male' population were deceased. Nearly 74% of the 'Female' population survived.
5. Around 61% of the people whose destination was 'S', were deceased. Around 55% of the people whose destination was 'C', survived.
6. The age groups from '0-15' years had more rate of survival. The age groups from '15-45' years had more rate of deceased.
7. The rate of deceased was more than the rate of survival among the people who had bought tickets in between '0-100' dollars.
8. Nearly 70% of the passengers travelling alone were deceased. Nearly 85% of the passengers having large family were deceased. Nearly 56% of the passengers having medium family size survived.